

Interpretations of the Peasants' Revolt – revision activity

Use the Peasants' Revolt content overview document (also on the website) to help complete this activity. You need to read the interpretations (opinions) in the centre column and then find / add evidence that could be used to agree and disagree with each view point.

Evidence (own knowledge) that would agree with this view	Interpretation	Evidence (own knowledge) that could be used to disagree
	The main cause of the Peasants' Revolt was the impact of the Black Death.
	The main cause of the Peasants' Revolt was the introduction of the Poll Tax.
	The Peasants' Revolt was a violent and threatening rebellion.
	The Peasants' Revolt was a rebellion to promote workers' rights.
	The Peasants' Revolt had no real impact.
	The Peasants' Revolt was an important event in British History.	